10 AM RICA

The Lord has called me to serve and share my life with Saint Joseph's parishioners and to jointly, walk side-side in a spiritual journey. I am humble by the opportunity to join Saint Joseph's Faith Formation Program as the Director of Religious Education. Serving God in this new capacity allows me to touch many people's lives, build strong relationships and help build the reign of God through stewardship. About me, I come from a small family father, mother, two sisters, two lovely nephews and a dog. My parents migrated from Mexico when I was only a few months old. I grew-up in Chicago, attend both Catholic and Public school, graduated from high school and went off to college. I am the first in my family to graduate from college. After high school, I went to Loyola University where I studied music, philosophy, and theology. I completed my bachelors is in organizational management an area of study at North Park University also, I have a M.A. in community development and planning. My minor degrees are in Early Child Development and Music from the City of Chicago Community College. In June of 2012, I completed a Masters of Education in Curriculum Instruction and Education Leadership with a type 75 certification at DePaul University. Presently, I attend Catholic Theological Union in pursue of a Masters in Divinity with a concentration in spirituality and ethics. My work with different multicultural communities in Chicago has granted me an understanding and sensitivity to people who share different worldviews. I have worked in multiple capacities such as director of after school programs, director of a shelter for homeless men, music director, social worker, and teacher. I hope to inspire others, continue to build on the quality of the Children's Formation Program and serve the children and their families to the best of my ability.

In Christ,
Carlos A. Roman

El Señor me ha llamado a servir y compartir mi vida con los feligreses de San José y de manera conjunta, caminar lado a lado en un viaje espiritual. Soy humilde por la oportunidad de unirme al Programa de Formación de Fe de San José de como el Director de Educación Religiosa. Servir a Dios en esta nueva capacidad me permite tocar las vidas de muchas personas, construir relaciones fuertes y ayudar a construir el reino de Dios a través de la corresponsabilidad. En cuanto a mí, yo vengo de una familia pequeña padre, madre, dos hermanas, dos sobrinos preciosos y un perro. Mis padres emigraron desde México cuando yo tenía sólo unos meses de edad. -Crecí en Chicago, asistí a escuelas católicas y públicas, me gradué de la escuela secundaria y fui a la universidad. Yo soy el primero de mi familia en graduarse de la universidad. Después de la secundaria, fui a la Universidad de Loyola, donde estudié música, filosofía y teología. Terminé mi licenciatura en gestión organizacional está es una área de estudio en la Universidad North Park también, tengo una maestría en el desarrollo comunitario y la planificación. Mis títulos son menores en Desarrollo Infantil Temprano y Música de la Ciudad de Chicago de Colegió Comunitario. En junio de 2012, terminé una Maestría en Educación en Currículo e Instrucción de Liderazgo en Educación con un tipo de 75 certificación de la Universidad De Paul. Actualmente, asisto a la Unión Teológica Católica de perseguir una Maestría en Divinidad con una concentración en la espiritualidad y la ética. Mi trabajo con las diferentes comunidades multiculturales en Chicago me ha dado una comprensión y sensibilidad hacia las personas que comparten visiones del mundo diferentes. He trabajado en múltiples capacidades como director de los programas después de la escuela, de director de un albergue para hombres sin hogar, director musical, asistente social y docente. Espero inspirar a otros, a seguir construyendo sobre la calidad del Programa de Formación de Fe de los Niños y servir a los niños y sus familias a lo mejor de mi capacidad.

Seek the One Truth: Faith and Science

God the Father Almighty

Vatican II Constitution: Sacrosanctum Concilium (Sacred Liturgy) ch. 3-5, Sacraments, Divine Office & Liturgical Year Additional Vatican II Document: Nostra Aetate (Non-Christian Religions) CCC #185-421: Belief in God the Father	Taize Genesis 1-2 Isaiah 56:1-8	Have a family discussion regarding faith and science Check out videos and resources regarding God's plan for marriage at: http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/ Care for God's Creation (e.g., commit to recycling; pick up cans, bottles, etc. in your neighborhood; have a one-hour electricity fast)

Reflecting on our belief in God the Father Almighty, we celebrate our Lord as creator of the universe, the world, and all humanity (so wonderfully described in Genesis 1-2). While it might be a struggle for humans to fully comprehend the miracle of creation, we are invited this month to go deeper in order to better understand the connection of faith and science. We also explore what unites all people who inhabit this planet as we study Vatican II documents like "Nostra Aetate," which encouraged Catholics to build bridges to all different faiths, and as we engage in prayer like Taize, a contemplative devotion shared by Christians of many denominations. Together, across scientific and religious boundaries, we all journey to seek the one truth.

November Prayer Intention: For college students and young adults, and all those who seek the truth
